

Unique Wire Weaving Co., Inc.
Website Policy Statement for www.uniquewire.com
effective May 2019

General Consent

We understand and share concern about security and privacy and have built www.uniquewire.com (the “Site”) in an attempt to maintain e-commerce safety. All information that you supply at our Site will be handled with the utmost care to ensure a safe and private experience. By using our Site you agree to the following terms and conditions, which are governed by United States law. If you do not agree with our policies or practices, your choice is not to use our Site. By using our Site, you are expressly agreeing to our collecting your information in accordance with this Statement. We reserve the right to revise this Policy Statement at any time. Questions about the Site or this Statement may be communicated via uww@uniquewire.com

Electronic Communications

By using our Site or sending email to us, you are communicating with us electronically and consent to this form of communication; as well as agree that all agreements, notices, disclosures and other communications that we may provide to you electronically satisfy any legal requirement that such communication be in writing.

Security

Our Site is hosted on secure servers using Internet security monitoring and protection. All credit card information communicated between your computer and our servers is encrypted using industry standard SSL (Secure Socket Layer) technology. However we cannot guarantee the security of information transmitted through the Internet.

For your protection, a card authorization is performed when your order is processed. We will validate your credit card billing information as well as the card's security code to ensure your card is being used correctly and has not been lost or stolen. If your card does not pass any security checks we will contact you directly. We will never ask for your credit card information via email.

We do not store any credit card information on our servers after your card is charged and the order is processed; once an authorization is obtained, no electronic record of your card information is retained by us.

Privacy

We will never sell, trade or rent any customer information provided to any third party. This includes but is not limited to your name, address, credit card information, email address or purchase history. Name and shipping information will be provided to common carrier vendors for the sole purpose of shipping your order. We will only disclose personal information in the event that we are required by local, state, or federal law enforcement. Our Site may employ the use of “cookies” when you visit our site.

Your contact information may be used to send you information about your orders and our company or to provide you other customer service. From time to time, we may send you special offers or information via email; however we will always allow you the option to opt out of these communications.

Copyright

All content included via our Site is the property of Unique Wire Weaving Co., Inc. and is protected by United States and international copyright laws. The compilation of any content from our Site is our exclusive property and shall not be distributed to others without our permission and proper acknowledgment.
